Easter Seals Help 9,251 Patients

Children and adults with physical handicaps in Appomattox county are urged to contact the Virginia Society for Crippled Children and Adults, P. O. Box 1786, Roanoke, Va., if medical care and therapeutic treatment are needed.

Robert C. Price, Executive Director, announced that the Society — the Easter Seal Society — stands ready to provide services to patients both young and old who are handicapped by crippling.

The Executive Director also called on parents, doctors, nurses, clergymen, and other agencies to refer to the Society handicapped persons in need of assistance.

The Virginia Society for Crippled Children and Adults operates 28 treatment and rehabilitation centers and services, year-round, in Virginia.

Through the program financed by contributors to Easter Seals, 9,251 children and adults received rehabilitation services in 1962. This is an increase of two thusand over the 1961 total.

Questionnaires Given To 405 Garment Workers

In the hope of extending the services of the Home Demonstration office to all women in the community, Miss Peggy Berger, county Home Demonstration agent, last week distributed more than 400 questionnaires to women employees of the Appomattox Garment Company and Chic Garment Company. The ladies have been asked to check whether they are interested in special interest meetings on sewing, flower arranging, home decoration and the like. Miss Berger stated that she hopes to get to know these ladies better, and to share with them the many services offered by VPI Extension Service.

4 AHS Students Attend Journalism Clinic Saturday

On Saturday April 6, 1963, Grey Holland, Mary Yancey Spencer, Carolyn Coleman, and Gloria Doss attended a journalism clinic at E. C. Glass High School in Lynchburg.

The morning classes were divided into four groups: poetry, feature writing, short stories, and editorials. Each group had a well known instructor in that field. The afternoon classes were divided into three round table discussion groups: Layout, Art, and New Publishers for Magazines.

Although the meeting was dominated by schools with magazines and newspaper publication, our group learned a great deal and it is hoped that we will be able to begin a student publication literary magazine, as well as improve our newspaper.

Modern 'Samsons' Lunch At Maude's

Two new type "Samsons" lunched at Maude's Saturday afternoon, April 6. "Big Boy" Brown and "Tiny" Anderson, professional wrestlers, stopped Saturday afternoon to eat and talk about wrestling, Kentucky, and their long hair dos.

"Big Boy" Brown, 27, is six feet, eight inches tall. His hair, as well as his partner, "Tiny" Anderson, is shoulder length, and both men sport luxuriant beards. "Big Boy" had his hair cut while in the Marines. "I'm a firm believer that I get strength from my hair", Brown said. Since that time, he and "Tiny" have kept their hair long. Both are natives of Kentucky and seen frequently on TV wrestling bouts.

"Tiny", at six feet, ten inches, was too tall for the Marines. He weighs 358 pounds; "Big Boy" 348.

Hd Schedule
